NOTE: When addressing the Mayor or City Council each person shall report to the podium and be recognized by the Mayor. No individual shall approach the Mayor or Council without permission of the Mayor. Any and all questions shall be directed to the Mayor in a respectful manner and without a boisterous tone and without causing disruption of a public meeting. The Mayor may defer a question to a council member or staff member if applicable. Only one person shall speak at any one time. Any citizen may speak once per subject. The Mayor shall have the authority to call a point of order at any time should any discussion leave the given topic as written on the agenda. Robert's Rule of Order shall be observed and followed. Comments commonly understood to be of the nature of a personal insult to any other person, except in a most rare and extraordinary occasion when such comment might be relevant to legitimate public business before the Mayor and City Council shall be ruled out of order.
